

I am outraged by the notion that the FCC would even consider the notion of repealing restrictions on cross-ownership. Already, the American public's news sources are limited by corporate interests. I can only imagine the impact of having a TV station and local newspaper owned by the same company. Please stop this monopoly on information! The American public, especially in this time of national crisis, deserves to be informed.

Thank you,

Sandra Harrell